Confident and involved learners

Children are learners when experiences, interactions and environments...

...build curiosity, creativity and imagination

...use technology to investigate and represent thinking

...encourage problem-solving and experimentation