Connected and contributing to the world

Children are active participants when experiences, interactions and environments...

...promote care, empathy and respect for one another

...support understandings of diversity and fairness

...embed respect for the environment foundationsforsuccess.qld.edu.au