Effective communicators

Children are effective communicators when experiences, interactions and environments...

- support children’s first languages and Standard Australian English
- build understanding of symbols and pattern systems
- engage children with texts, music, dance, visual arts and storytelling foundationsforsuccess.qld.edu.au