Intentional teaching

Educators are intentional when they...

- make thoughtful, informed and deliberate curriculum decisions
- plan for opportunities that progress each child’s learning
- foster high level thinking and challenging experiences