Strong sense of identity

Children are proud and strong when experiences, interactions and environments...

...promote pride, confidence and resilience

...connect with language, culture and traditions

...provide a sense of belonging and connectedness